A GREAT DAY
FOR THE BIG TIGERS.

They Have Eaten All the Republican Canaries
in the City.

GROVER AHEAD OF HIS TICKET.

Republican Leaders Now Discussing the Cause of Defeat.

HARRISON NOT THEIR CHOICE.

They Say Now He Was
the Candidate of the Office-Holders.

Acknowledgment of the work done for the National Democratic ticket by Tammany Hall and the New York State Committee, is prompt and enthusiastic. Campaign Chairman Don M. Dickinson this morning wrote these letters:

Richard Croker, Tammany Hall:
I must express to you my sincere and profound appreciation of your untiring devotion to the National ticket, and of your sleepless vigilance and enthusiasm, earnest and painstaking care of its interest throughout the campaign, extending from the nomination at Chicago, to this triumphant close.

I know that the result, so largely due to you and to loyal Tammany Hall, gives to you, as much as to any man in the United States, unalloyed pleasure, and I congratulate you.

Don M. Dickinson.
A similar letter was also sent to Hugh Mc-Laughlin, of Brooklyn.

Messrs. Croker and Sheehan received hundreds of other letters and many telegrams of congratulation this morning.

There were only smiling and happy faces at Democratic Headquarters this morning.
The Republican managers, further up the avenue, tried to be cheerful, but their looks told their efforts.

The general sentiment among Republicans seems to be that the expected has happened. Now, that it is all over, the cat is let out of the bag. One of the most outspoken among them was Gen. Charles E. Furlong, who said: "Harrison was not the choice of Republican voters. He was the nominee of the office-holders and delegates from Democratic States."

Ex-Gov. Alonzo B. Cornell said: "It would take chapters to tell the causes of Republican defeat. I have not got time to enumerate."

William Brookfield, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, said: "It was a landslide, but came the wrong way."

Secretary Kenyon, of the Republican State Committee, said: "The cause of defeat: A lack of votes; that's all."

Ex-State Senator Vedder said: "It was a shrinkage of Republican votes."

Ex-United States Senator Platt had not returned from Togo, and ex-United States Senator Miller was away and would not talk.
Collector Hendricks was close-mouthed as a clam. He sat behind his desk down at the custom-house buried in a mass of papers and documents, and looked glum and solemn.

"Explain it! Oh, that's something I can't possibly attempt to do."
It's all over, but the congratulations and congratulations.
Incidentally it may be mentioned that the shouting, which hasn't fairly begun, won't be over for weeks.

Not only are Democratic New Yorkers rejoicing over the tremendous tidal wave that swept over the country yesterday, but they are hugging themselves with delight over the big majorities that the city, county, Assembly and Congressional tickets received.

Even Republicans freely admit to-day that Mr. Richard Croker knew pretty near what he was talking about when he said Mr. Cleveland would have 75,000 majority in the city and that the State would experience a Democratic cyclone.

Mr. Cleveland Made a Speech.
Several gentlemen from the Democratic National Headquarters
went up to see Mr. Cleveland at his residence, 12 West Fifty-first street, at about 2 o'clock this morning to congratulate him on his election.

There were in the party Chairman William F. Harrity, Don M. Dickinson, ex-Secretary of the Treasury Charles S. Fairchild, William C.
Whitney, C. C. Baldwin, Henry Villard and others.

Mr. Cleveland and Mrs. Cleveland came out on the portico and Mr. Cleveland made a short speech in acknowledgment of the congratulations.

Cleveland's Plurality in the City.
Mr. Cleveland's plurality in New York City and county was 70,152, or nearly 1,000 more than that of Mayor-Elect Thomas F. Gilroy—a fitting reply to the men who predicted that Tammany would knife the National ticket in order to help the local candidates.

No Knifing on the Democratic Side.
The result shows conclusively that there was no knifing nor any need of "boosting."

It was a perfect tornado, impelled by the will of the people, that irresistibly lifted nearly every Democratic candidate in the city into the office for which he was running,
and which, at the same time, sent Republican hopes and rainbows into smithereens.

Why the Tigers Smile.
This is why the Tammany tigers smile today and smack their chops in so self-satisfied a manner.

They have eaten the Republican canaries and hardly a feather is left in sight.

This is the result of Tammany's sweeping victory yesterday, briefly summarized:

This is the Result.
The entire city and county ticket elected.

Every Assemblyman except one out of the thirty in the city and county elected. The solitary one is a County Democrat who was indorsed by the Republicans.

Every Alderman candidate elected.
Every Congressman elected.

Grover Broke a Record.
Mr. Cleveland's plurality was not only an unheard of achievement in the city for a Presidential candidate greater, even than Grant's 60,778 over Seymour in 1868, but Mayor-Elect Gilroy's plurality over Candidate Elstein 75,178, exceeds by over 20,000
the greatest majority secured by a New York Mayor candidate in twenty-four years—
that of 54,274 in 1868.

Next to Grover Cleveland and Thomas F.
Gilroy the most celebrated man in New York to-day is David H. Henderson.

The Only Tammany Man Outside the Breakwaters.
But Mr. Henderson's celebrity is due to entirely different causes than either Mr. Cleveland's or Mr. Gilroy's.

In after years Mr. Henderson will be known to posterity as the only Tammany candidate for Assembly in 1892 who was not elected.

And yet it is not Mr. Henderson's failure that has acquired this greatness.

It was thrust upon him by the combined efforts of the Republicans and County Democrats, which even then only succeeded in electing their fusion candidate, Thomas J.
McManus, by 302 plurality.

Mr. McManus Also Conspicuous.
Mr. McManus, as the Assemblyman-elect from the Eighteenth District, is also a conspicuous figure because of all the thirty As-semblymen from New York City and County
he is the only one who is not a Tammany Democrat.

This is Tammany's victorious city ticket:
Mayor—Thomas F. Gilroy.
Aldermen—Ferdinand Levy.
County Clerk—Henry D. Purroy.
Judge of the Common Pleas—Leonard A.
Giegerich.

City Judge—Rufus B. Cowing.

EAST AND WEST ARE SWEEPED.

No Doubt that Illinois and Indiana Stay in the Cleveland Column.

PERHAPS CALIFORNIA ALSO.

And There Are Strong Indications That Wisconsin Has Swung Around.

As it stands, according to the latest returns, the Electoral College presents 257 votes for Cleveland, 152 for Harrison and 35 for Weaver.

An important change may come with the confirmation of an Associated Press report that the Republicans finally concede California to the Democrats, which will make Cleveland's vote 266 and Harrison's 145.

Another change, which seems very probable, may yet turn Wisconsin and its twelve votes to the Democratic column.

New York State's plurality for Cleveland by the latest returns is about 45,731. There is a chance of its going higher.

All doubt concerning the position of Illinois and Indiana seems to be removed by news which will be found below:

10,000 CLAIMED IN ILLINOIS.

Though Reports from Country May Reduce the Majority Somewhat.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The indications are that the vote of Illinois has gone for Cleveland and Stevenson by from 5,000 to 10,000 plurality and that the entire State Democratic ticket is elected.

CHICAGO AND COOK COUNTY WILL GIVE Cleveland and Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for Governor, not less than 15,000 plurality. The country thus far has shown the Harrison vote to be less than in 1888, when Harrison had a plurality of 22,000 in the whole State.

As Harrison's plurality in the State outside of Cook County in 1888 was but 21,000, and the country returns thus far show a falling off of 1,029 in 230 precincts, it would seem that the result must be very close—probably not over 5,000 for Cleveland. The Democrats have probably elected both Congressmen-at-large, and have carried not less than ten of the twenty Congressional districts in the State.

Chairman Ben T. Cable, of the Western branch of the Democratic National Campaign Committee, claims Illinois for Grover Cleveland by at least 10,000 plurality, and the entire State ticket, the 20 Congressmen-at-large, and at least 12 of the 22 Congressmen of the State.

"We have captured both branches of the Illinois Legislature," he said, "and will do the re-electing of the State next winter."

5,000 MAJORITY IN INDIANA.

INCOMPLETE RETURNS INDICATE A Victory for Cleveland.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 9.—Not more than half the counties in the State have been heard from, and these incompletely.

Indications are that Cleveland has carried the State by 5,000 to 8,000 plurality, and that Democrats have State ticket and Legislature.

Returns from missing counties may possibly show a different result.

LEWELLING ELECTED GOVERNOR AND SEVEN JOINT CONGRESSMEN.

TOPEKA, Nov. 9.—Chairman Breidenthal, of the Democratic State Committee, says the Weaver electors will have a majority in the State of 22,000; that Lewelling for Governor will have 17,000 majority, and that the Democrats and Populists will get seven Congressmen.

DEMOCRATIC HOPE IN WISCONSIN.

The State Almost Sure to Give Cleveland a Plurality.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 9.—A. M.—It is almost certain that Cleveland has carried the State. Republican figures have been reduced to less than 1,000.

Situation in West Virginia.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 9.—At midnight
Chairman Dawson, of the Republican State Committee, claimed the election of the State Republican ticket and that the State had gone for Harrison.

Democratic claims quite the contrary. No accurate figures.

Democracy Sweeps North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 9.—It is likely that the Democrats have elected all their Congressmen except in the Second District, and have carried the State by 15,000 majority and retained control of the Legislature.

Tennessee for Cleveland.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 9.—Out of forty Representatives and twenty Senators in East Tennessee the Republicans have elected over half. The Republicans concede a Democratic victory in the State.

Bay State Republicans Weak.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—Only 12,000 of Harrison's plurality of 22,557 in 1888 in Massachusetts seems to be left to him in 1892.
Gov. Russell is probably re-elected by 1,500.
Head of the State ticket Republicans.

Every Delaware County Claimed.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 9.—Chairman
Hanby, of Democratic State Committee, claims that Democrats have carried every county in the State.

Virginia Democratic by 30,000.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. 9.—Incomplete returns at Democratic Headquarters indicate the election of a solid Democratic delegation and a majority of 30,000.

A Silver Senator from Nevada.

RENO, Nev., Nov. 9.—It is conceded that Weaver carries Nevada by 1,500. Newslands, silver party, is elected to Congress. The result is not certain, but it is generally believed the silver party will insure the election of Stewart to the United States Senate.

Republican Congressmen in Iowa.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 9.—It is claimed that Harrison will have a plurality of 25,000 in Iowa and that the Republicans will elect nine of ten of the eleven Congressmen and entire State ticket.

Democrats concede Harrison's plurality 10, 000; Republicans claim 30,000.

10,000 Democratic, 13 Republicans.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—President Harrison will have a majority in Pennsylvania of between 55,000 and 60,000 votes. The Republicans elect two Congressmen-at-large and fourteen of the twenty Representatives.
The Democrats are also often, and four are close. The Legislature will sit about as at present, the Republicans now having a majority of about fifty on joint ballot.

Georgia Cuts a Great Figure.

ATLANTA, Nov. 9.—It is estimated that Georgia's complete majority for Cleveland will be not less than 95,000 or 100,000. The State Democracy fairly could itself. Congressman Tom Watson is beaten.

On Kentucky's Biggest Vote.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 9.—On the largest vote ever polled in Kentucky Cleveland wins by 35,000 to 40,000.

Walkerover in South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 9.—There was little opposition to the Democracy in South Carolina, and Cleveland gets at least 42,000 plurality.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

House to Remain Democratic by About 55 Majority.

Probabilities of an Anti-Republican Senate Indicated.

Third Party May Hold the Balance of Power in the Upper Chamber.

The next National House of Representatives will be Democratic, though the phenomenal majority in the present Congress will be reduced to about fifty-five members.

The Republican gains are largest, comparatively, in Massachusetts, which has returned Henry Cabot Lodge, of Force Bill fame, though he was sternly rebuked in his own town of Naumuck. The Republicans will probably gain four Congressmen in the State and another is claimed, the vote between McCall, Rep., and Andrew, Dem., is very close.

In New Hampshire ex-Senator Henry W.
Blair is defeated, and in Kansas Jerry Simpson is beaten by Long, Republican.

"Tom" Watson is defeated in Georgia.
The notorious Cannon is returned from Illinois.

Results as to certain State Legislatures which are to elect United States Senators make it apparent that if the Senate is not transformed into an anti-Republican body it will be very close.

In this State a Democratic successor to Frank Hiseock will be chosen. In Nevada the silver party will probably elect a senator to succeed William M. Stewart, Republican.
In Wyoming the Weaver men are conceded to have the Legislature, which will name a Third Party successor to Francis E. Warren, Republican.

Nebraska, which has also been carried by the silver party supporting Weaver, will elect a silver Senator to succeed A. S. Paddock, Republican.

The Michigan Legislature, though complete returns have not been received, appears to have a Republican majority of eight on joint ballot and will probably be able to elect a successor to Francis B. Stockbridge.

North Dakota and Connecticut will also elect Republican Senators to succeed Lyman H. Chase and Joseph R. Hawley, respectively.

The Republican loss of five Senators from their present number of forty-seven, herein indicated, will leave them forty-two, while the addition of five from the Democratic and Third Party strength of thirty-five will give them a majority of two when they convene.
Of these thirty-seven are Democrats, and the gains are with the Third Party, which will hold the balance of power.

THE EASTON DISTRICT IS IN A BLAZE OF DEMOcratic glory to-day. Almost every house in the sixteenth ward, the Stars and Stripes, "Dutchtown" had not at noon got over the excitement of the night. At 8.30 parties were on the streets shouting for the new President, and even the little children on their way to school were shouting "Harrison!"

As predicted in THE EVENING WORLD yesterday, Williamsburg gave the Democratic ticket increased majorities in every precinct.
The sixteenth ward gave Cleveland 900 majority, and the fifteenth ward 250. The latter has always been a Republican ward.

In the fourteenth ward, where the fight was hot and heavy over Supervisor, two prominent Democrats running, the regular nominee won, and the ward, instead of cutting down the Democratic majority, increased it by 400. This was the story over the entire district.

Mrs. Mary Kilhe, the housekeeper at 20

Dailey, which was resumed this morning in Part III. General Sessions.

Dailey looked pale and anxious when

The following came to the editor of THE EVENING WORLD this morning:

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., Nov. 9.—The Democratic societies of the town of Port Jervis and the village of Port Jervis sent congratulations to THE WORLD for the glorious victory gained.

Mayor Gleason Defeated.

In Long Island City the vote for Mayor stands as follows: Sanford, Jeffersonian Dem., 2,080; Gleason, Dem., 2,495; Nanley, Rep., 1,483. Sanford's plurality, 105.

Kings County Democracy has done nobly.
Cleveland's plurality there will be close to 35,000. The splendid showing in the famous "Hidden campaign" of 1876 has been outdone.

There were Democratic gains in almost every ward of Brooklyn, and there were Democratic surprises in the new eighteenth.
Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth Wards.
James W. Aldrich made an astonishing run for District Attorney, and will enter upon his fourth term with a majority of 32,000. George F. Elliott, his opponent, hardly knows he was running.

The five Democratic Congressmen in Kings have been elected, the only doubtful district, the Fifth, having been carried by Capt. John H. Graham, who has 1,500 majority.

Fifteen out of eighteen Assembly districts have been carried by the Democrats, the Republicans winning in the Fifth, Sixteenth, and possibly the Fourteenth districts.

The next Board of Supervisors will contain only three Republicans—Grisinger, Wolfert and Boyd.

Halsey Corwin, for Comptroller, and Anthony Weber, for City Auditor, run close up to the National ticket.

County Auditor Frederick Keller wins by a good majority, and Mrs. Joseph A. Keene and Joseph M. Creamer are well ahead of their Republican opponents.
